

Glenlyon Norfolk School School Year Dates 2026/2027

As you plan for the next school year with your family, please note that we have generous school holidays and strongly discourage families from taking their children out of school at times other than these dates. Being absent from school often creates difficulties and stress for a student. Each day in the classroom is dynamic and cannot be adequately captured by simply providing work.

Please be advised that dates may be subject to change.
